tive Powers Which Justify Belief That She Will Meet and Solve Triumphantly the Problems Which Confront Her After the War.

With Paris Boulevards echoing with "vives" for American troops our interest in the warfare of our ally vastly increases, and the facts are not lacking to encourage the belief that she is already on the road to recovery from the blow of invasion by a ruthless enemy. One of the most important developments is the announcement that one of the largest banking bashin tions in America concerned with for eigh trade, the Guaranty Trust company of New York, has opened a Paris branch to handle the rapidly increas ing volume of French business.

This action may surprise many persons who had thought of France as bowed under a calamitous invasion. The bank, however, gives figure andicating that France is not only meeting her military and civilian problems with a stout heart and never falling courage, but is re-establishing her export business with this country. In 1914, the year of the outbreak of the war, imports from France to this country totaled $141,446,252. This total was reduced to $77,158,740 in 1915, but last year the value of French imports to the United States rose to $102,077,000 justify the belief that she will emerge from the present conflict prepared to meet and solve triumpleantly the proislems which confront her."

The commercial and industrial record of France, following past wars, indicates that she should recover quickly from the actual physical destruction inflicted in the present conflict. The reconstruction of railroads, the creetion of factories to replace those de-stroyed, and the replacement of the mechanism of industrial activity that will be required and that is in part ofrendy planned, offer a peculiarly invitdng field to American capital and enterprise. THE SECRET OF THE PROPERTY OF

"Liver All Wrong"

Mrs. Susa Brooks, of Grandin, Mo., says: "Some time ago I was in a bad fix, with stomach and liver trouble, I did not feel good at any time. I was very constipated and had headaches from this condition and had a continual hurting in my stomach, and bad taste in the mouth. Could tell my liver was all wrong. I would take pills, but seemed I would get back as bad as ever. Had known of Black-Draught, so decided to try it. I began with large doses, . . . gradually getting to small doses."

THEDFORDS

me of hurting in my stomach, cleaned off my liver, and made me feel like a new person. . . I can highly recommend Black-Draught as a splendid medicine for stomach and liver troubles." Black-Draught has been found to act on the jaded liver, and to help it do its work of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system. This medicine should be in every house-hold, for use when needed. Get a package today. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. Morning will dawn brighter. Price 25c. a package. All druggists:
